

Please join us for a series of special meetings hosted by the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission

This meeting is part of a series of listening sessions held around the region. Our goal is to reach those in the Greater Philadelphia region to inform them about DVRPC plans and programs and public participation activities. We hope these meetings will provide an opportunity for a continuing dialogue between the public and DVRPC regarding the most important issues facing the region.

Wednesday, March 14, 2012 @ 6 PM
African American United Fund Conference Center
2231 N. Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19132
Topic: Transit Planning in the Delaware Valley

6:00 PM: Dinner and Networking
6:45 PM: Welcome and Introductions
7:00 PM: Presentation
7:30 PM: Discussion

What is DVRPC?

DVRPC is dedicated to uniting the region's elected officials, planning professionals, and the public with a common vision of making a great region even greater. Shaping the way we live, work, and play, DVRPC builds consensus on improving transportation, promoting smart growth, protecting the environment, and enhancing the economy.

DVRPC serves a diverse region of nine counties: Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia in Pennsylvania; and Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, and Mercer in New Jersey. DVRPC is the federally designated Metropolitan Planning Organization for the Greater Philadelphia Region - leading the way to a better future.

DVRPC fully complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related statutes and regulations in all programs and activities. DVRPC public meetings are always held in ADA-accessible facilities and in transit-accessible locations when possible. Auxiliary services can be provided to individuals who submit a request at least seven days prior to a meeting. For more information, please call 215.238.2871.
