

GREATER PHILADELPHIA
FOOD SYSTEMS PLAN

open choices treasured increased maintain workers successful cook regional Buy socially Hunger preserved communication environment changes fair personal Development forge variety system business producers new profitable entrepreneurship nourishing time models diversity food Agriculture Stewardship replenished connections farming land recognized access occupation ecological collaborative consumer partnerships places healthy ecological affordable respect farm energy farmers economy sustained development know adaptable resources regenerated Conservation Ecological practices available stakeholders appropriate adequate culturally working scales decent cornerstones living climate markets valued

7 VALUES

9 GOALS

10 INDICATORS

FINITE NUMBER OF RECOMMENDATIONS

7 VALUES

- Farming and Sustainable Agriculture
- Ecological Stewardship and Conservation
- Hunger and Food Access
- Fairness
- Economic Development
- Health, Healthy Eating, and Improved Relationship with Food
- Collaboration

TODAY – PANEL DISCUSSION

- Sustainable Agriculture and Farming –
Julia Freedgood, American Farmland Trust
- Health, Healthy Eating, and Improved Relationship with Food –
Dr. Roni Neff, Center for a Livable Future, Johns Hopkins School of Public Health
- Economic Development –
Dr. Jeremy Nowak, The Reinvestment Fund
- Hunger and Food Access –
Geri Henchy, Food Research and Action Center